

COMMENT

I understand the applicants desire, however I do not wish the prices of radio's to go up, along with the option of using commercial equipment because the petitioner wishes to be able to work on his own equipment.

Perhaps the petitioner should stick with older easier to repair equipment rather than retard technology.